THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE FOR WOMEN UNVEILS STATEWIDE HALL OF FAME

CHARLOTTE, NC - The North Carolina Conference for Women is proud to announce the unveiling of a prestigious annual awards initiative to permanently recognize women for a lifetime of accomplishments and contributions in the state of North Carolina. The newly established North Carolina Women's Hall of Fame is seeking nominations for its inaugural induction class to be recognized at the 2009 NC Conference for Women on January 28 in Charlotte.

"North Carolina is home to countless amazing women who are deserving of such high recognition," says 2009 Hall of Fame selection committee co-chair, Gwynn T. Swinson. Adds Swinson - "I am honored to lead an effort that will provide a unique platform to recognize women who have distinguished themselves as extraordinary leaders in our state."

Tog Newman joins Swinson as co-chair of the selection committee. Both are currently NC Conference for Women advisory board members.

Nominees will be selected on a variety of criteria including, but not limited to community service, professional leadership, and advocacy on women's issues. A nominee may be living or deceased, however they must be (or have been) a resident of North Carolina. Newman and Swinson are leading the process in developing a statewide panel of men and women who will be responsible for reviewing all nominee submissions and selecting inductees. All are welcome to submit a nomination.
